EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. Claims 4 and 13 are cancelled.
2. Claims 1-3, 5-12, and 14-20 are allowed.
3. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the amended abstract, the legal phraseology "means" in lines 11, 13, and 15-16 are removed to avoid improper abstract content. The phrase "switching means" in the abstract will be amended as "switching".

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of records fails to disclose a Booth encoding circuit comprising: a plurality of inputs; a first plurality of transistors forming a NAND logic stage, a second plurality of transistors forming an OR logic stage, a first and second inverter, a first and second switching means; and wherein a second output inverter connected to first and second switching means and wherein within a critical path of Booth encoding circuit first output inverter drives second output inverter as cited in the independent claims 1, 10, and 19.

Art Unit: 2124

The closest found prior art is the admitted prior art in the present invention. The admitted prior art also discloses a Booth encoding circuit comprising: a plurality of inputs; a first plurality of transistors forming a logic stage, a second plurality of transistors forming an logic stage, a first and second inverter, a first and second switching means; and wherein a second output inverter connected to first and second switching means and wherein within a critical path of Booth encoding circuit. However, the admitted prior art fails to disclose a first and second plurality of transistors forming a NAND and an OR logic stage respectively and the first output inverter drives second output inverter.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
